

Pet Shop Boys, If Looks Could Kill

What d'you want?
You've got nothing to say and you can't hide that look of dismay Why pretend?
You only want revenge
It's been said
I'd be dead
If looks could kill

Where'd you go with that threadbare crowd still in tow?
Do they appreciate your tales of woe?
Droning on and on Lost your thread?
I'd be dead
If looks could kill

You think you're acting in self-defence
but you're fooling no one and you never will
The only crime is irrelevance
No wonder you're worried I'd be dead and buried still
If looks could kill

Welcome to a unique event where we see what you represent Flaunt that look of 'Let battle commence!'
It changes nothing and it never will
And on that matter of self-defence
I'm not worried
I'd be dead and buried still
If looks could kill
If looks could kill
