Pet Shop Boys, Loves Comes Quickly

(Love pains) (Love pains) (Love pains) (Love pains) Midnight I watch you as you are sleeping You don't know I'm leaving My bags are packed to go Oh, no, no, no It hurts me Hurts me so to leave you Leave you for some one who I hardly even know But time has come to say goodbye To spread my wings and fly To feed the need I feel inside But I keep feeling these love pains Hurting me through and through Caught between a love or two Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains? (Love pains) (Love pains) Can't help Can't help but remember The love we had, so tender A world so safe and sound Oh, no, no, no, His kiss, temptation so inviting A feeling so exciting Has turned me upside down And though, I know I could be wrong This feeling's much too strong I've got to be where I belong But I keep feeling these love pains Hurting me through and through Caught between a love or two Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains? Tearing me more apart 'Cause I don't wanna break your heart Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains? (Love pains) (Love pains) Love pains Hurting me through and through Caught between a love or two Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains? Tearing me more apart 'Cause I don't wanna break your heart Oh, will I ever be free from these love pains? Hurting me through and through Caught between a love or two Oh, will I ever be free of these love pains? Tearing me more apart 'Cause I don't wanna break your heart
