

Pet Shop Boys, You Choose

He's gone
You've lost Stay behind and count the cost You try
You lose
You don't fall in love by chance
You choose

It's a decision made over time Should you take a risk and start to climb the steepest hill only to find halfway there you've been left behind?

Choosing to love is risking a lot and trying to change and to give all you've got But don't pretend it comes out of the blue You take a chance and see it through and if it's refused what can you do?
Continue hopefully?
Start anew?

Lick your wounds
Buy your booze
You won't get drunk by accident You'll choose Don't blame him for refusing your bid
He didn't decide to love
You did

Learn the lesson
Take the blows
You didn't fall in love by chance You chose Play the sad songs
Sing the blues
You don't fall in love by chance
You choose
