

Peter and Jacob, The Red Queen

I will tell you a story
Something more than tale
Get your breath clam down
And listen to me
When there was the darkness
And we happy come his ways
We'd wanted to survive
Rebellion started together

We set over the midnight
And nothing can hold us
For all and for the freedom
Before we'll die

Play with fire
Plays gives pleasant
That's more fear
Time is going here so slowly
It's not a time to wonder
We have to say for ourselves
Failure heard will .. to far
And protect ... together

We set over the midnight
And nothing can hold us
For all and for the freedom
Before we'll die
