

Pharrell Williams, Entrepreneur (ft. JAY-Z)

I am black ambition
I am always whisperin'
They keep tellin' me i will not
But my will won't listen
Gravity on a black man
Whit ebverything on his back and
His family and passion
If the doors ain't crackin'

You gotta let go
If you want to fly
Take the leap
You gotta risk it all
Or they'll be lots of things you'll never see
You gotta let go, le to Cause you never know what's in store
Mister enterpreneur

In this position whit no choice
A system imprison young balck boys
Distract with white noise
The brainwashed become hype boys
3 eye dilate
You wasn't supposed to make it off
Section 8
Robbin' Peter just to play Paul
Prepare to risk anything

You gotta let go
If you want to fly
Take the leap
You gotta risk it all
Or they'll be lots of things you'll never see
Remember black is space
And its the color of your face
There will be no sunny days
If Black went away

Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Black man, Black man, Black man
Please go chasin; to the drip that you're used to
They don't make tchem like theu used to
