

Pharrell Williams, Stay With Me

(Intro)

Flush flush.

Turn me up some more.

(Verse 1: Pharrell)

You're that girl

Who thinks the world

Is somethin' beautiful

And that's all baby

But your lookin for a brawn

with shed upon the wrong star

Cause it don't know

That's not how it goes

So, I can't explain, why things are made the same and others change

He made it that way

But the perplexities of world

Leaves more oysters and pearls

And I don't know

It's just the way it goes

But I know you can

Chorus:

Stay with me

Lock the door

Take the key

Hide yours

Feel the bate

Hear the choice

Hear the choice

Hear the choice

Hey!

(Verse 2: Pharrell)

Don't take the time

To relax your mind

So unusual

Oh baby

But your priorities are disheveled

But your emotions and your health just don't go

Your body says no, So...

I can't concieve

That leaves will grow on trees in loweth degrees

and comeback next spring

But the perplexities of life

Brings more days that bore new skies

So who's to know, possible that you could

Chorus:

Stay with me

Lock the door

Take the key

Hide yours

Feel the bate

Hear the choice

Hear the choice

Hear the choice

Hey!

(Verse 3: Pharrell)

Up, up and away

I be the wind that blows yourself

The pixie does a tinkerbelle

Up, up and away

I be the wind beneath your wings

Living color comes with you

(Pusha T Verse)

Baby let's it pour it up
Let them galardo doors up
Pat eve for them louis as soon as the tours up
The million dollar frame is his and her the same
I took it on the chin when I heard about the lane
I ain't here to try to rewrite your past
That don't measure up to the nights that we laughed
When considering love you take the Good with the bad
I've been disappointed by every bitch i ever had Either she was dick crazy or cheddar mad
Shame what they did for them jeans and them leather bags
Reverse it I want perfect
That was half the reason I bought half them purses
That chapter is over, it was worth it, my My new angel surface, she ain't have to rehearse ,My baby's real
That's why I put the chill on her
So good make a...wanna kneel on her, not yet

Chorus:

Stay with me
Lock the door
Take the key
Hide yours
Feel the bate
Hear the choice
Hear the choice
Hear the choice
Hey.
