Phoenix, Everything Is Eveything

Things are gonna change And not for better Don't know what it means to me But it's hopeless, hopeless.

Gotta get you home Could be with anyone I think of what I've done Oh, you know it all.

Everything, is everything
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Everything, means everything
Can't understand a word, half of the stuff I'm sayin.

The things I do possess Sometimes they own me too What they gonna do to me I think it's hopeless, hopeless,

What I can't explain I'm sure you get it well Ah, since I always wanted I always wanted you.

Everything, is everything
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Everything, means everything
Can't understand a word, half of the stuff I'm sayin.

Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
This is what I want; look at what it did to me.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
This is what you want; this is what you get instead.

Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster. This is what you want, I always wanted you.

Everything, is everything
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Everything, means everything
Can't understand a word, Half of the stuff I'm sayin.

Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
The more I talk about it, the less I do control.
Riding low, Riding low, Riding faster.
Can't understand a word, half of the stuff I'm sayin.
