

Phoenix, Trying to be cool

City and desert coexist
Depending on the things you're wearing
White lie binoculars
Tell me that you want me
Tell me that you want me

They'll teach yourself not to resist
Too much intention Presbyterian
Mentulate testosterone
Tell me that you want me
Tell me that you want me

Cool
I'm just trying to be cool
It's all because of you
So tonight ain't better too
We're all gone

Oh girlfriend business says it all
You can't go wrong
Is innocence a word where you're from?
Tell me that you want me
Tell me that you want it all

Two dozen pink and white binoculars
Why, why I got no problems to show
To part-time holy bachelors
Tell them that you want me
Tell them that you want me

Cool
I'm just trying to be cool
It's all because of you
Something that ain't better too
With no gone

Oh girlfriend business says it all
You can't go wrong
Can women sound cynical where you're from?
Tell me that you want me
Tell me that you want it all

Ooh, son, I don't care where you're from Nothings that personal
There is no physical evidence of cannibal boyfriends
