Pink, God Is A DJ

I've been the girl with her skirt pulled high been the outcast, never running with mascara eyes now i see the world as a candy store with a cigarette smile sayin things you can't ingnore like mommy i love you daddy i hate you brother, i need you lover, hey f you i can see everything here with my third eye like the blue in the sky

(Chorus)
if God is a dj
life is a dance floor
love is the rhythm
you are the music
if God is a dj
life is a dancefloor
you get what your given
it's all how you use it

i've been the girl, middle finger in the air unaffected by rumors, the truth i don't care so open your mouth and stick out your tongue you might as well let go you can't take back what you've done so find a new lifestyle A reason to smile look for Nirvana under the strobe lights sequins and sex dreams you whisper to me there's no reason to cry

(Chorus)
if God is a dj
life is a dance floor
love is the rhythm
you are the music
if God is a dj
life is a dancefloor
you get what your given
it's all how you use it

Bridge

you take what you get and you get what you give i said don't run from yourself man that's no way to live i got a record in my bag you should give it a spin lift your hands in the air so that life can begin if God is a dj....say if God is a dj....if God....if God is a dj life is a dance floor, get your ass on the da

(Chorus)
if God is a dj
life is a dance floor
love is the rhythm
you are the music
if God is a dj
life is a dancefloor
you get what your given
it's all how you use it

(Chorus)
if God is a dj
life is a dance floor
love is the rhythm
you are the music
if God is a dj
life is a dancefloor
you get what your given
it's all how you use it
