

Plus 44, Guten Tag

[Originally by Wir Sind Helden]

My voice screaming through your mobile telephone
My fist clenched tight against your status quo
My teeth are brand new from Dr. Best and his son
My soul for a little bit of resolution
It was on sale at an offer an unbeatable price
Trade in your wasted life for a newer device
It had only begun and I already knew
There's something wrong with this promise there's a problem for you
I won't give in and I'm taking it back [x4]
Guten Tag, Guten Tag now I'm taking it back
I can't give any more, so now I'm taking it back
Guten Tag I admit I was impressed at the start
But your life starts crushing when you take it too far
Guten Tag
My voice coming at you on a late night show
My fists reigning blows down on your cheek bones
My teeth biting at the heart of television
My soul for a little bit of revolution
It was on sale at an offer an unbeatable price
Trade in your wasted life for a newer device
It had only begun and I already knew
There's something wrong with this promise there's a problem for you
I won't give in and I'm taking it back [x4]
Guten Tag, Guten Tag now I'm taking it back
I can't give any more, so now I'm taking it back
Guten Tag I admit I was impressed at the start
But your life starts crushing when you take it too far
