Poco, Cry No More

Sometimes it seems like You lose when you win I know just how hard it can be You take what you have to And give all you can But it's just a sad memory

So cry no more What do you want to cry for Tears only wash to the shore

So cry no more

I am a fine one

To talk about cryin'
I've cried some tears of my own
And one thing for certainWhen teardrops start falling
The heartache won't leave you alone
