

Polaris At Noon, Waiting By Your Side

Thinking of you on this long drive out
I'm wondering how you still live in doubt
Well I know, I know, I know what it feels like
It's taken some time just to think this through
I'm finally ready to leave here too
Well I know, I know, I know that you never will

Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there, waiting by your side?

There's something about this dark overcast
Reminds me of you, that your love won't last
Well I know, I know, I know that it feels wrong
The sun will shine through and drive clouds away
And soon you will see that I'm right to say
That I know, I know, I know it'll never work

Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there, waiting by your side?

Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there, waiting by your side?

Somewhere in the town you call your home
You will find someone to hold
And somehow I will start to be unknown
You'll forget this one
You'll forget this one

Well did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there, waiting by your side?

Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there?
Did you think you would find me there, waiting by your side?
