

Polopop, Hello Bryan

Hello Bryan (with a Y)
Catching me with that look in your eye
Maybe today I'll stop and say Hi
And then I'll think better of it and just Walk on by

Every day is just the same
But I know you so well I gave you a name

Skipping along my merry way each morning
My eyes flicker at you but my feet keep running
And for a second I smile inside
And the rest of the day I'm on a high

Every day is just the same
But I know you so well I gave you a name

For as long as you're there
You can just be Bryan
