As to the exact meaning of a sin

The Greek word in the New Testament for a sin is hamartánein

And that means to miss the point

When you get up and say the creed

"I believe in God, the Father almighty

Maker of heaven and earth

And of all things visible and invisible"

You are really saying

"I fervently wish that there exists a God the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth," et cetera

Because if you really have faith you don't need belief

To się nie mogło udać, ale nikt tego nie kminił

Podejź no tu kurwa i naley kolegom Martini

My staniemy z boku i zajaramy szluga

By do słońca wschodu puszczać rap z YouTube'a
