

Putri Ariani, Perfect Liar

I thought my life was done
when we broke up, and I
I kinda feel desperate
When we were separate
Without you
Without you

Connected to my pain
I try to understand
Sometimes I missing you but then I hating you
I miss you
I hate you

Talk to my mirror
Think I'm crazy
Alone in a night, oh
If remembering you is hurt
I have to move on

Now I know
When you said to me I love you
You are perfect liar
Don't need to give anything
I can love myself better
Yes, I can love myself better

Connected to my pain
I try to understand
Sometimes I missing you but then I hating you
I miss you
I hate you

Talk to my mirror
Think I'm crazy
Alone in a night, oh
If remembering you is hurt
I have to move on

Oh, I love you
You are perfect liar
Don't need to give anything
I can love myself better
You said to me I love you
You are perfect liar
Don't need to give anything
I can love myself better

Oh, I can love myself better
Oh, I can love myself better
