

R. Kelly, I'm Your Angel (Duet With Celine Dion)

No mountain too high for you to climb all you have to do is have some climbing faith (oh yeah) No river too wide for you to cross
(Chorus) I'll be your cloud up in the sky I'll be your shoulder when you cry I'll hear your voices when you cry

(Chorus) And when it's time to face the storm I'll be there by your side This place will keep us safe and sound
