

Racoon, Biggest Fan

I never meant to stalk or haunt you or to follow
But without you my life would suddenly go dull (dumb dumb doll)

Got all your posters man, I hung 'em in my hallway
So where ever you may be, you're always here with me

I've got you underneath my skin
I don't know where I should begin

I'll always be your biggest fan but you don't know who I am
One day you'll know me man
One day you'll understand that I'll be your biggest fan

Got seven setlists and I even got two t-shirts
I'm looking prettier than yesterday
One t-shirt's made by hand, the other one is paid for
And man, I promise I won't download anything

Chorus

I have travelled 'cross the land
Dying to see the band
I'll make you understand
I'm much more than a fan
I've travelled 'cross the land
And just to see the band
And guess what. Here I am
