Racoon, Tic Toc

Tic toc, 1 listen to the clock I wonder if she's gonna come over Or if she's gonna stay away, again today Tic toe, why don't the bummer stop She's late, just look at the clock I'm f ed, already missing her a lot

This is all she seems to do
This is all f need to know
0 Eleanore why don't you show
Tic toc, I'm running out of luck
I know Eleanore is gone now
She's gonna lend someone a f.f.f.f.f.

They say, it's all a big mistake And that it's more than I should take 0 yet I love her so, still she don't seem to behave though

This is all she seems to do This is all I need to know 0 Eleanore why don't you show

I wish you could star in all of my shows a different soap everyday to suit you. Never gonna go anywhere you know Eleanore O no, I'm never gonna go anywhere you know Eleanore 'cause I'm all yours, love

Tic toc, I'm thinking about a lot Why does beauty always stop and Makes you wish you had a brick for a heart

So true, I got a lot to do Can always read a book or even Watch 'have I got news for you'

This is all I seem to do It ain't much f need to know 0 Eleanore I can't let go

Chorus (2x)
