Racoon, Took a Hit

One party to call Two people One falls No memory, at all It's just a waiting list

Some yelling Some talk Some quiet Some small They nibble on, well, anyone No can do for you, doll

Took a hit, a good hit Like a car into the wall What a hit, a real hit When I thought I'd seen it all Took a hit, a good hit Let dealer make the call Oh man, I thought I'd seen it all

You throw out the recipe
Forget about you and me
You throw out the recipe
It's not about you or me
You throw out the recipe
Forget about you and me
You throw out the recipe
Because the good life, the good love
The good bits are for free

Some ladies out there
Nobody that seems to care
No beauty queens, out there
It's just a waiting list
Thick stare straight through the room
We all give away our goods too soon
And we?re waiting for something to say
Instead of listening

Took a hit, a good hit Like a car into the wall, Oh man, I thought I?d seen it all

You throw out the recipe
Forget about you and me
You throw out the recipe
It's not about you or me
You throw out the recipe
Forget about you and me
You throw out the recipe
Because the good life, the good love
The good bits are for free

Oh, that's what all the love should be

Took a hit, a good hit Like a car into the wall, Oh man, I thought I?d seen it all

Throw out the recipe Forget about you and me Throw out the recipe It's not about you or me You throw out the recipe
Forget about you and me
You throw out the recipe
Because the good love, the good life
The good bits are the recipe

Forget about you and me
Throw out the recipe
It's not about you or me
Throw out the recipe
Forget about you and me
You throw out the recipe
Because the good love, the good life
The good bits are for free
