

Radney Foster, Tonight

Linda's going down town tonight
Cause she don't wanna be alone
She's got everything in this world
Except the love of a man at home
She keeps on hopin' that door is open
Down on Broadway she knows a place where dreams rave on
Tonight ain't gonna be the same old same old
Tonight gonna throw all the numbers out a window
If she feels like dancin'
Until the morning light
It's heart over mind
Head over heels tonight
Linda's talking about quitting her
She's just bluffing but another margarita
Who knows we both might go
Some of her insanity is starting to rub off on me
Any dream we can dream up she says might come true
Tonight ain't gonna be the same old same old
Tonight gonna throw all the numbers out a window
If she feels like dancin'
Until the morning light
It's heart over mind
Head over heels tonight
No telling where this might end up
Linda she ain't ruling out love tonight

SOLO

Tonight ain't gonna be the same old same old
Tonight gonna throw all the numbers out the window
Tonight tonight
