

Radney Foster, Walkin' Talkin' Woman

She's a walkin' talkin' real live good lovin' woman.

She'll heal the hurt you left in me.

She's a livin' breathin' heart-stoppin' man pleasin' woman... To help me lose your memory. You say

(Chorus) She's a walkin' talkin' real live good lovin' woman.

She'll heal the hurt you left in me.

She's a livin' breathin' heart-stoppin' man pleasin' woman. To help me lose your memory.

There was a time I thought our love would never die. Back befor my teardrops fell around your lies.

I realize now that i've found someone true.

That love was never really meant for me and you.

(Chorus) She's a walkin' talkin' real live good lovin' woman.

She'll heal the hurt you left in me.

She's a livin' breathin' heart-stoppin' man pleasin' woman. To help me lose your memory.

Yeah she's a woman to help me lose your memory..
