

Randy Rogers Band, Reason To Stay

Verse 1:

You look pretty good after all that you&#039;ve seen
Your smile&#039;s still as bright as cause you&#039;re scared that they might Show all the world what you told me last night
And
And you&#039;re so sad you could just cry

Chorus 1x:

I&#039;d sing you the sweetest songs, and hold you so long

And make you forget all the reasons

You talked about leaving this place

If you&#039;re thinking bout leaving,

I could give you a reason to stay

Verse 2:

You seem pretty calm after what you have done

Always rehearsed and you impress everyone

You&#039;re covered so well, that no one can tell

Your skin is on fire and your heart is in hell
And you&#039;re so tired of just being alive

And you&#039;re so sad you could just cry

Chorus 1x

If you gotta go, you ought to know I wont stand in your way

Just give me time and I&#039;ll change your mind
Soon you&#039;ll forget yesterday

Chorus 1x
