

Rare Bird, Hard Time

I want to understand
This thing called love
I need it to give it all
Throughout my life

Building me a rainbow in my head
Colours 'round my feelings can't be dead
Yet it's such a hard time down to my close friend

The days are passing by
So many cry
You know it is all so clear
But wonder why

Running doesn't find the begger's meal
Nothing is ever too unreal
And it's such a hard time down to my close friend

Sometime it is all so strange
But the pain will remain, I still feel the same
I know it is only right to begin with myself
Keep on trying

Hard time to live
Easier to give
And it's such a hard time down to my close friend

Hard time to live
Easier to give
And it's such a hard time down to my close friend

Sometime it is all so strange
The pain will remain, I still feel the same
I know it is only right to begin with myself
Keep on trying

Hard time to live
Easier to give
And it's such a hard time down to my close
Hard time down to my close
Hard time down to my close
Friend

Life is such a hard time
