Reba McEntire, Little Girl

(Kendal Franceschi/Quentin Powers)

Daddy used to tell me If I ran too fast I'd fall and hurt myself But the ice cream man would ring his bell And I'd get there before anyone else

I'd see a puppy in the window And I'd run and press my face against the pane And Daddy'd say slow down girl After all these years I guess nothing has changed

That little girl I knew
Ran after you
But she fell this time
And broke her heart in two
Hey that's just like a little girl I knew

Back home there stands an old house With a picket fence beneath a big oak tree I can almost see the backyard And a little girl with freckles That was me

And there were dreams of toys and storybooks and Lord it seemed I wanted them so bad Now 20 years have come and gone And I'm still chasing things that I can't have

That little girl I knew
Ran after you
But she fell this time
And broke her heart in two
Hey that's just like a little girl I knew

Yes, I'm still that little girl

Daddy I still haven't slowed down yet
