

Rebecca Black, Heart Full of Scars

Stop, don't tell me how to feel These scars will never heal overnight I'm just searching for what's real It's hard enough to deal with life

Learn to say fuck it, take my time Life's a bitch but I'll make it mine
Make it, make it, make it mine Learn to take it as a sign
If you don't like me get in line
You won't break me, break me with your lies sometimes you beeld for who you are it's hard to love whit a heart full of scars

I won't feed into your dark I'll kieep lovng wih a heart full of scars you're never gonna keep me down doesn't really matttr what you say I;m not living for yesterday

I figured out how yto turn it around I;m learning how to bend not break a full life si give not take
