

Reggie And The Full Effect, Your Girlfriends Hate

Your boyfriend, he likes you, but does he really try
Can he do, what I do, should you just say good-bye
Your girlfriends, they tell you, don't ever trust a guy
Should you do, what they do, don't have a reason why
It's nothing that I can do, just write another song for you, so
(It's nothing, I can do)
Your boyfriend, he loves you, but never can reply
Would he say, what I say, I wish you'd say good-bye
It's nothing that I can do, just write another song for you, so
(It's nothing, I can do)
This is all that I'm saying
This is all that I'm saying
Your boyfriend, he likes you, but does he really try
Can he do, what I do, should you just say good-bye
It's nothing that I can do, just write another song for you, so
(It's nothing, I can do)
(x6) This is all that I'm saying
