

Remo, Secret Message

It's time to lose ourselves
In every state of mind
When you are trying to be the same
When you are feeling that it's insane

C'mon, take a chance
Everything's gonna be alright
If you loose the game
Throw away your fears out

Far away like from the stars
The words are coming to the ground
Secret message sent to us

Because tonight is our time
Release your shine

When you're trying to run too fast
When you're falling it's no time to cry

C'mon, take a chance
Everything's gonna be alright
If you loose the game
Throw away your fears out

Far away like from the stars
The words are coming to the ground
Secret message sent to us

Far away like from the stars
The words are coming to the ground
Secret message sent to us

When you feel that it's so insane
When you see the things on your way
When you try to be the same
When you stop and start the game

Far away like from the stars
The words are coming to the ground
