

Rennata, Please Stay

Please stay
I've been waiting long
Don't go away
You better stop 'coz it's hurting me
Don't make me feel like we have nothing but memory
And have you noticed that your silence is killing me
Don't let me drown this way
Don't let it go please stay, please stay, please stay
Don't let it go please stay, please stay, please stay
I wish that I was enough for you
I'm talking like I'm your past, you see
You left me there with no history
And I can travel so long now
No limits right now
My mind speaks
And I can see the clear sky
Sky with no stars
Something's telling me
Please stay
I've been waiting long
Don't go away
You better stop 'coz it's hurting me
Don't make me feel like we have nothing but memory
And have you noticed that your silence is killing me
Don't let me drown this way
Don't let it go please stay, please stay, please stay
Don't let it go please stay, please stay, please stay
I wish you never had to choose
Between my storm and sun, you see
But there's a side that you have to lose
And we can travel so long now
No limits right now
My heart speaks
And I can see the clear sky
And the two stars
Something's telling me
