Rhubarb, Lead Me

I will walk these streets alone On this story i've been told I know what people say I've watched it growing old I'm bitter and I'm cold

I will always understand When you take me by the hand Words are mystery But everything I know Is never let it go

Won't someone lead me Won't someone take me Won't someone feed me It's lonely as I call

Moving on again
A little less to spend
I know there's more to me
I try to make it real
I'm living what I feel

When I'm sinking I sell my fortune in Find a way out I pawn my soul again
