

Ringo Starr, Las Brisas

Cross over the border
We'll take a sailing ship into the night
A sea without horizons
We'll have each other's love to hold us tight
On a starless night

Oh, Las Brisas
Means the breeze will carry us like two birds in flight
On a starless night

Oh, Penumbra
Means the sunset that I see within your smile
Is the dawn of your eyes

Yo te amo
Means I love you like I've never loved before
Dreams come true, dear
When I take you in my arms forever more
Forever more

Oh, Las Brisas
Means the breeze will carry us like two birds in flight
On a starless night

Oh, Penumbra
Means the sunset that I see within your smile
Is the dawn of your eyes

Penumbra
Means the sunset that I see within your smile
Is the dawn of your eyes

Yo te amo
Means I love you like I've never loved before
Forever more
Forever more
