Ringo Starr, Las Brisas

Cross over the border We'll take a sailing ship into the night A sea without horizons We'll have each other's love to hold us tight On a starless night

Oh, Las Brisas Means the breeze will carry us like two birds in flight On a starless night

Oh, Penumbra Means the sunset that I see within your smile Is the dawn of your eyes

Yo te amo Means I love you like I've never loved before Dreams come true, dear When I take you in my arms forever more Forever more

Oh, Las Brisas Means the breeze will carry us like two birds in flight On a starless night

Oh, Penumbra Means the sunset that I see within your smile Is the dawn of your eyes

Penumbra Means the sunset that I see within your smile Is the dawn of your eyes

Yo te amo Means I love you like I've never loved before Forever more Forever more
