

RIOT V, Feel The Fire

Lightning flashes 'cross the crimson sky
Distant thunder rolls into the night
Fear the power as I gain control
Eyes of fire as I touch your soul

Supersession
My one obsession
Built aggression
My soul possession

Feel the fire
Burning deep inside
Feel the fire
Feelings I can't hide

Frightening passion running through my veins
Taking chances when you play the game
Enter darkness I have just begun
In my chambers you're the chosen one

Supersession
My one obsession
Built aggression
My soul possession

Feel the fire
Burning deep inside
Feel the fire
Feelings I can't hide

Lightning flashes 'cross the crimson sky
Distant thunder rolls into the night
Fear the power as I gain control
Eyes of fire as I touch your soul

Supersession
My one obsession
Built aggression
My soul possession

Feel the fire
Burning deep inside
Feel the fire
Feelings I can't hide
