

Ris Flower, Flying To Berlin

In the morning she is flying to Berlin
Kind of funny, can't believe she's disappearing
In the evening, she'll be so far away
Where I can't pick her up with my getaway car

Wrong way, baby
Go, go, go, go back
Wrong way, baby
'Cause I need you ASAP

Are you going to stop, or what?
You're gonna be around, be around?
Are you going to reshape your heart
Just to be around, be around?
Are you going to stop or start?
Are you going to reshape your heart
To be around, 'round?
Just to be around, 'round?

In the morning she is flying to Berlin
Is it real or is it just a bad dream?
And I ask myself why she's running so far away
Where I can't pick her up with my getaway car

Wrong way, baby
Go, go, go, go back
Wrong way, baby
'Cause I need you ASAP

Are you going to stop, or what?
You're gonna be around, be around?
Are you going to reshape your heart
Just to be around, be around?
Are you going to stop or start?
Are you going to reshape your heart
To be around, 'round?
Just to be around, 'round?
Just to be around, 'round?
Just to be around, 'round?

Why are you flying to Berlin?
