

ROADHOG, Fight It Back

You better watch out when you cross my way
I'll put you in your place without no sign, no trace
You always run me down, You're a bringer of torture and pain
You're no prophet, sole preacher and savior
The foolish game you play, You lead me to breakdown
The time has come, so get ahead of the game

When the world collapse on you
Fight it Back, Fight it Back
When they tell you what to do
Fight it Back, Fight it Back
When the world collapse on you
Fight it Back!
You are deceiver, dreamstealer and liar
You promise richness, affluence and fame
You're not worth my trust, you spit on my faith
Never try to put a muzzle on my face
I'm a wild dog, I bite, I kill, I rape
The tables turned and beware of my final revenge!

Here I am, the victim of sacrifice
Standing tall, with glittering eyes
Here I come, I'm Alive!
