

Robert Nickson ft. Elsa Hill, Close Your Eyes

The dreams I had last night make me weak
I can't wait to meet you wherever you might be Different likes of people surround me
And in my mind I start talking, talking
Because I'm watching, watching you walking
On great nights of living

[Chorus]

Life, it is without boundaries
Close your eyes in the light of dawn
Just [move], the rest will take care of you
Close your eyes
The rest will take care of you
Close your eyes

[Chorus (1x)]

Here I go again on my way
Remembering your voice in my mind letting go of my thought
Because it hurts severe, right here right now
I found my calling from this moments I'm existing I'm watching it all evolve

[Chorus (1x)]
