

Robin Schulz, HEATWAVE (FEAT. AKON)

Try so hard to get away
Think about you every day
Try so hard to live without
But no, no (...)
Sun is shines is shining far away
Birds eyes just looking out
And they can see that you're, you, re mine

Coz when we're together
Your love is controlling my brain
Like plunging inside of that fire I cannot contain

Our love is a Heatwave
It's burning through the evening rain
Sets sail out on an Ocean wave
Coz Our love is a Heatwave
Coz Our love is a Heatwave

I never will walk away
Unless you're right by my side
Burn gas in the Chevrolet
She's so hot
And our connection is like wi-fi
Just love how you ricochet
Won't stop until you're satisfied
