

Roby Facchinetti, Rinascerò, Rinascerai

i'll be reborn
you will be reborn

when everything is over we will see the stars again

i'll be reborn

the storm that overwhelms us it bends us but it will not break us

we were born to fight fate
and every time we have won these days will change our days but this time we will learn a little more

i'll be reborn

embraced by big skies we will trust God again but in silence e breathe a new air but this city of mine frightens me
