Rod Stewart, Purple Heather

(Rod Stewart)

[Intro not in English]

Oh the summer time is gone And the leaves are sweetly turning And the wild mountain thyme Blooms across the purple heather Will you go, lassie. go

If you will not go with me I will never find another To pick wild mountain thyme All along the purple heather Will you go, lassie, go Lassie, go

I will build my love a tower by the cool crystal waters And I'll cling to her forever Like the ivy to the heather Will you go, lassie, go

(1) And we'll go together To pick wild mountain thyme All along the purple heather Will you go, lassie, go

Lassie, go

[Not in English]

Will you go, lassie, go

[Repeat (1)]
And we'll all go together
Tp pull wild mountain thyme
All across the purple heather
Will you go, lassie, go
Lassie, go
