

Rookie Of The Year, Van Story Hills

You mean so much to me girl.
But the time is gone.
Where are you.
Where did you go.
What did I do.
And all I want to be is like the movies.
A perfect Hollywood dream.
You and me together forever.
Wish it could be.
Baby why did you leave me.
And say those crazy things.
Our time is gone.
You left me forever.
I swear I never meant to be mean.
Forever is a long time.
I don't think I'm up for that.
Please don't ever forget me.
I would never forget you.
I'm not like that.
No one ever loves you more than that
