

Rooney, No Wait But Listen I'm Talking To You

No wait but listen I'm talking to you (x4)

Well, I'm the only one here who can save this man's life
Trust me, I've got a PhD and a knife
You see the wound is to his right, no, left side head
Check his pulse, oh my God, this man is

Gone (x9)
He is

Gone (x9)

No wait but listen I'm talking to you (x4)

First thing's first, let's retrace this man's steps
If he didn't walk in, did anyone see him come? (laughter)
Oh, get your mind out of the gutter
This man is gone
He could have a wife and kids, but now to them, he's

Gone (x9)
He is

Gone (x9)

Gone (x16)

No wait but listen I'm talking to you (x3)

No wait but listen (x2)
I'm talking to you

Gone (x18)
He is

Gone (x36)
