

Roy Drusky, Workin' My Way Up To The Bottom

Oh I'm workin' my way up to the bottom fighting back the tears that never stop
Yes I'm workin' my way up to the bottom
And I won't need you when I'll reach the top

When you left the bottom just fell out from under me
Like a nightmare I kept fallin' endlessly
When I stopped I found a place so dark and lonely
But the light of hope now I can almost see
And I'm workin' my way up...

[steel]

Take away a blind man's cane you'll leave him helpless
That's what happened when you let go off my hand
As you turned away my arms reached out to hold you
And I fell into a well of pain as you ran
But now I'm workin' my way up...
Oh I'm workin' my way up...
