

Royal Hunt, A Life to Die For

how many times you felt so weak you let them keep you down?
how many times your simple hopes and dreams got kicked around?

how many times you closed your eyes and said: "i'll get there soon";? how many times you didn't dare.. kept howling at the moon

throughout entire night

but what if there's a way to make it all undone?
a second chance to go back where it all begun?

if you could have a life
to die for
in front of you, behind
the next door

no effort and no fight
this one you've won
goes on and on and on

i wish you'd use it right
and no more
regrets because tonight
the game is on
and on and on

so many times you saw the best in life just pass you by so many times you walked away without asking why

how could you let it go?

so many times you really wanted to but couldn't reach so close yet far away... enough to hear the choir preach:
you're never gonna win

you're in for a minute
so take it or leave it
