Royal Hunt, Surrender

"Open up the window"-said the light-"See into another world"

Is it only a dream?

Voices sound familiar in the night...could this be reality? Or is it all in my mind?

Why me? Could I just be " The One"? Or have I come undone?

Head in through the door and start to run straight into another life, dear old friends beside me Never had a dream that's so surreal-could this be the end for me?

Am I losing my mind?

Still...I just stay.Can't run away-there's a price to pay

Look into the sky thru the naked eye,in a flash of light surrender Losing everything, soldiers march and sing. Distant bells will ring - surrender
Let the children cry-earth will breath a sigh in a blaze of light - surrender
They`re taking everything. Demons dance and sing when the chimes will ring
The end is here

"Open up the window"-said the light-"Welcome to another world" Dear old friends beside me Voices so familiar every night-could this be reality? Am I losing my mind?
