

Ruby, Beefheart

Beefheart honey don't you wanna come n' play with me
Beefheart honey don't you wanna come away with me
What happens here is none of your concern

come n' play with me don't you wanna come n' play with me

A million days of empty space and time that you can use
A million years of empty space and time that you can lose
What happens here is none of your concern

come n' play with me don't you wanna come n' play with me

There's nothing to do if you want to
