

Rustic Overtones, Pimp

love me, so I feel no pain hate me so i feel whole again love me, so i believe your lies hate me, so i burn your eyes make me feel love to comfort you make me feel hate to bury you make me feel love so that i can thrive make me feel hate keep myself alive i don't want no part of you but i'll sell my heart to you make me feel human again cause i've seen men's dark inhibitions for the price of dead presidents so how can you say the power of money is not a sin love me, make my whole world glow hate me, make me feel dirty & low love me, so i never feel the same hate me, make me feel despair & shame make me feel love make this world worth while make me feel the hate & taste the bile make me feel love so i can always win make me feel hate and hate you from within
enter me, prefer me, but hurt me please pay for me, support me, but disort me please
