

RxBandits, Now Or Never

i can't wait forever, maybe i can't wait all night.
last time that she kissed me before her boyfriend blacked my eye.
she left in the morning,
i got no goodbye,
but there's no use for crying its the story of my life.
nothing left to say,
no holding back can't seem to stomach this heart-attack what could you say? well it ain't right what we want to see
through this harsh reality is something that you never know you left behind.... you know that its right (but you won't tell me)
who's to say its wrong (its not your lie)
opinionated world leave me alone
what we want to see
is that it's NOW OR NEVER!
