

Ryan Caraveo, Hate Me Now

Oh-h-h
You can't break me down
Oh-h-h, oh-h-h

There ain't no rules in the wild
Every day a mother loses a child
I never get fooled by a smile
We ain't fam just 'cause we've been cool for a while
I can't stop, I got moves to make
I've been losing my friends at a gruesome rate
Got a heavy heart, yeah, it grew some weight
You sink or swim, you choose your fate
I don't need your help, I'm so independent
I learn how to fly if the road hit a dead-end
I be this way 'til I float to the heavens
Yeah, I be this way 'til I float to the heavens

If you hated me then, then you gon' hate me now, oh-h-h
You can shake me up but you can't break me down, oh-h-h
If you hated me then, then you gon' hate me now, oh-h-h
You can shake me up but you can't break me down, oh-h-h

I don't like to party
I be in the cut like the scars on my body
If you hated then, don't talk to me now
Fuck double, fuck triple, I quadruple down
Now the truth is I love you, I wanted to try
But you are the reason I'm haunted inside
If you ghosted me once, I don't want a reply
Before livin' with snakes, I will honorably die
Five fingers on the wheel when I ride
Other hand flippin' one finger in the sky
Eyes wide open, but my heart closed shut
I don't care if you say sorry now, so what?

If you hated me then, then you gon' hate me now, oh-h-h
You can shake me up but you can't break me down, oh-h-h
If you hated me then, then you gon' hate me now, oh-h-h
You can shake me up but you can't break me down, oh-h-h

Break down, oh-h
You can't break me down, o-oh (you can't break me down)
Break down, oh-h
You can't break me down (you can't break me down)
(You can't break me down)
(You can't break me down)
