

Ryan Matthew, Dam

Do you think
That you've come far
Through winds so hard
And are you as disgruntled
As you appear
Are you wishing that I wasn't here
Well one day soon that dam is gonna break
And it'll wash you away it'll wash you away
Yeah on day soon that dam is gonna break
And it'll was you away it'll wash you away
From me
Do you know love
Do you push it below you
And are you as ungrateful
As you appear
Are you wishing I wasn't here
Well one day soon that dam is gonna break
And it'll wash you away it'll wash you away
Yeah on day soon that dam is gonna break
And it'll was you away it'll wash you away
From me
And that's the best damn thing
that could happen to you
Yes that's the best damn thing
that could happen to you
For you
