they come to see a fire burning in your heart they want to witness this love form the star

they heal you when you cry
this love is far and wild when you smile it's star align

when you sleep softly the angels come like diamonds like my love
do you want to know there's someone in the world lovely as you!
