

Salamandra, Silent Memory

I am searching streets and halls
I wish I saw you among them all
You would be down by the seat of Queen
By the very seat of Queen

You were one of her true guardians
Who went to fight in war but never came back home
You were one of her true guardians
Who fought for her till his death

I can nearly see you
Standing at her door
But none of our prayers
Brings you back

Soldiers, fighters, guardians of Queen
We will always remember you all
Soldiers, fighters, guardians of Queen
For protecting our homes

Our land is free now
There is nothing to fear
You really set us free

Our homes are safe now
Peace all over the land
You really set us free

I can nearly see you
Standing at her door
But none of our prayers
Brings you back

Soldiers, fighters, guardians of Queen
We will always remember you all
Soldiers, fighters, guardians of Queen
For protecting our homes

Soldiers, fighters, guardians of Queen
We will always remember you all
Soldiers, fighters, guardians of Queen
For protecting our homes
